

Craighalbert Centre
Enabling Children to Achieve

Join us!

We are proud to work with local, national and international organisations to develop practice and improve outcomes for children with neurological conditions and their families wherever they live in Scotland. Please get in touch to explore how we could work together to support their wellbeing and enablement.

